

I urge the commission not to implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's telephone privacy protection.